

July's Newsletter

We are blessed to have an eleven (11) year old boy, Adrian, living with us. Put yourself in Adrian's shoes as we let him tell his own story of what happened to him just prior to his coming to us. "I (Adrian) am sitting here all alone in the middle of a gigantic bus depot. Hundreds of people are passing by but they are all strangers. I am scared to death. My grandmother left hours ago telling me she'd be right back. The horrible truth crept into my mind that she had abandoned me. My father, my mother and now my grandmother, all of my relatives, had abandoned me. People asked where was my mother and father. I was too terrified and embarrassed to answer them. I wanted to scream and cry. I was filled with confusion as to what I was going to do. Finally, a policeman arrived and took me to a place called Child Protective Services."

Praises

Praise the Lord that God moved in the heart of Chihuahua's Governor and right now the new well is being dug.

Sad story isn't it? But if you saw his smiling face today you would never believe that he is the same child. Adrian is changing. He is just drinking in the love of Jesus here at Lily. The two best words to describe Adrian now are "friendly and helpful". The guests that come and visit our home are always greeted by Adrian's big hug and smile. He is a very responsible, and hardworking boy. Adrian has said that he never wants to leave our home because of the love that he receives by everyone. He freely admitted to me (Ed) that he had a hunger for father love, having never met his own father. I am doing my best to meet that need with the love that only God the Father can give. Please pray that God, the Father of the fatherless, would keep pouring His love upon Adrian.

We can truly say that we see God as the Father to fatherless.

Prayer Requests

Please pray for our finances since summers are very difficult financially.

---

A father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in his holy dwelling. Psalm 68:5

---

Thanks to all of you who through your generosity make this miracle possible.

With love
Ed and Rosa Salo
